

Place Names Act

NAMING OF PLACE

I, DELIA PHOEBE LAWRIE, the Minister for Planning and Lands, in pursuance of section 11 of the Place Names Act, approve the recommendation contained in a report by the Place Names Committee that the road shown hatched on the plans appearing in the schedule be named Bottlebrush Avenue, Dargaville Close, Barramundi Close, Bunggulwuy Close, Fincham Close, Henning Madsen Close and Binga Binga Close as indicated on those plans.

Dated 9 November, 2007.

D.P. LAWRIE
Minister for Planning and Lands

NOTE:

Bottlebrush Avenue	is named after a species of Callistemon - an entirely Australian genus of shrubs and small trees.
Dargaville Close	is named after Stephen Dargaville, an active long term member of the Nhulunbuy community.
Barramundi Close	is named after the fish "Barramundi" also known as the Giant Perch – "Lates calcarifer".
Bunggulwuy Close	is so named as the area is where the spirits danced in ceremony. "Bunggul" meaning dancing ceremony and "wuy" meaning place.
Fincham Close	is named after Harry and Joy Fincham, who were long term residents of Nhulunbuy and actively involved in sporting and community groups in the town.
Henning Madsen Close	is named after the late Dr Henning Madsen, a highly respected Nhulunbuy doctor.
Binga Binga Close	is the local Rittatjingu peoples name for the hopping action of the wallaby as it returns to its place of rest.
